

Architecture/Landscape Architecture

Rudy Davalos Basketball Center at UNM

Pump Station for the North I-25 Reclamation/Reuse Station, City of Albuquerque

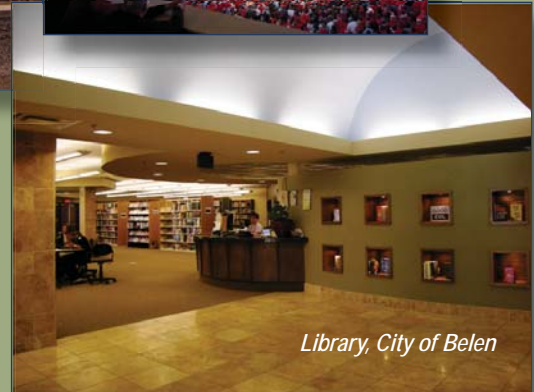

Intermodal Transportation Facility, Village of Los Lunas

The "PIT"

UNM PIT Arena

Library, City of Belen

- libraries
- community centers
- senior citizens' centers
- fire stations
- city halls
- recreation centers
- laboratories
- municipal facilities
- water-wise landscaping
- streetscapes
- pedestrian malls
- roadway medians
- site reclamation
- municipal parks with softball, soccer, football, and softball fields
- basketball, volleyball, and tennis courts
- skate parks
- aquatic centers

Molzen Corbin is a nationally ranked engineering and architectural firm providing water resources, civil, transportation, airport, electrical engineering, architecture, and landscape architecture design services to municipal clients throughout New Mexico. For 50+ years, we have been proud to have worked closely with communities throughout this State to help plan, develop and ensure a better quality of life.

At its core, architecture at Molzen Corbin is focused on realizing community vision through design and innovation. We are committed to the architecture of communities on the state, federal, and local level. Architecture is needs analyzed, service delivered, and problems solved.

MOLZENCORBIN
ENGINEERS | ARCHITECTS | PLANNERS

www.molzencorbin.com

2701 Miles Road SE, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87106 • 505.242.5700
1155 Commerce Drive, Suite F, Las Cruces, New Mexico 88011 • 505.522.0049